Welcome to tonight's visitors Leeds United for this fourth round League Cup-tie.

For several years now I have been a student of Leeds and there is no doubt that they have undergone a period of transition under manager Jimmy Armfield who is no stranger to Burnden Park.

I was, of course, assistant manager to Jimmy before he left the Wanderers to take over at Elland Road, and while I welcome him back today I hope we don't make him too welcome.

This is his first return visit in charge of Leeds although we see him here frequently.

Last season, we reached the semi-finals of this particular competition and we would like to go one step better this time.

I have often said that we must be involved in everything and I stand by that belief.

Our League position improved at the top of the table when we beat Spurs in the last minute of Saturday's game here at Burnden.

It was very bad for the nerves of both managers and I had almost settled for a draw when our players once again surprised me by their fighting spirit.

They were looking for a win and to their credit they got one. And if tonight's game is anywhere near as exciting, everyone will get full value and more for their money.

Ian Greaves

CARL HARRIS — Forward — Welsh international born in Neath. Joined Leeds from school and is just established himself in the senior side with 17 League appearances prior to the current season.

TREVOR CHERRY — Defender — Started his career with Huddersfield Town, then moved to Leeds after making 184 League appearances for Town. He has now passed that appearance mark for the Elland Road club and is a current England international.

ARTHUR GRAHAM — Forward — Signed by manager Jimmy Armfield from Aberdeen at the start of the season. Plays on the flanks and is a dangerous attacker.

KEITH PARKINSON — Defender — Young central defender who was born in Preston. Leeds are his first professional club and he has proved a capable stand-in for Gordon McQueen when called on. Stands five feet eleven and a half inches.

TONY CURRIE — Midfield — Born in Edgware, Tony started his career with Watford. Moved to Sheffield United and cost a big fee when he moved to Leeds. An England international.

FRANK GRAY — Defender — Scottish international, who is the younger brother of Eddie Gray. Has played for much of his career at full back and has really made his mark in the side.

EDDIE GRAY — Forward — Born in Glasgow, Eddie is a Scottish international. Leeds are his only club and he has made nearly 300 League appearances for them. Is noted for his masterful wing play.

DAVID HARVEY — Goalkeeper — Born in Leeds, David is a Scottish international who joined United as a junior. Prior to this season he had made 203 appearances in League games and stands an inch under the six-foot mark.

PAUL MADELEY — Defender — Another long-serving Leeds United player who is a former England international. A versatile defender, he was born in Leeds and joined his home town club as a youngster. His first team League appearances are approaching the 450 mark.

PAUL REANEY — Defender — Former England international who was born in Fulham but started his soccer career with his only club Leeds United. A speedy player who has made a good recovery from a serious leg injury, he is nearing 600 League appearances.

RAY HANKIN — Forward — Signed from Burnley last season for a sizeable fee, Ray was handicapped in his early games at Leeds by knee trouble. Had an operation and is now banging in the goals to prove manager Armfield's judgement. Born in Wallsend.

JOE JORDAN — Forward — Scottish international, Joe started his career with Morton before moving to Leeds. Is a very dangerous player both in the air and on the ground and looks set to make his mark for his country in the World Cup in Argentina next year.

PETER HAMPTON — Defender — Born in Bishop Auckland, Peter had made 32 appearances for Leeds at the end of last season as far as League games are concerned. Has recovered after a knee operation earlier this season.

Today's Visitors

Jimmy Armfield makes the nostalgic journey back to Burnden Park today looking for a League Cup victory that would further boost his team's rising confidence. Since taking over at Leeds three years ago, the former Bolton manager has given a great deal of thought to the restructuring of the Leeds team.

He led United to the European Cup Final at the end of his first season at Elland Road but, though Leeds have always remained in a commanding position, they have not yet quite regained the killer instinct of the team of the late 'sixties and early 'seventies which won pretty well everything it played for.

Yet there have been signs this season that Leeds might be on their way back to the top. Their recent 3-2 victory at Maine Road over Manchester City, for instance, was a particularly good performance.

Though many of the players who served Don Revie so well remain in the side, Mr. Armfield has been carefully adding new pieces to his jig-saw.

The latest arrival was that Welsh international midgit Brian Flynn, a £175,000 signing from Burnley, who is now playing in midfield. Indeed, it is in this department that Mr. Armfield has made the most noticeable changes.

Last season, he invested £250,000 in Sheffield United's England player Tony Currie and, during the recent close-season, he paid Aberdeen £120,000 for Arthur Graham, who is playing as a deep-lying winger.

For much of the season, Leeds had been lining up with a midfield four of Peter Lorimer, Tony Currie, Eddie Gray and Arthur Graham. When injuries struck, Carl Harris was recalled and the arrival of Flynn widened the choice of midfield players even farther.

Joe Jordan and Ray Hankin remain the two chief strikers, with Hankin picking up so many of Jordan's knocks-on. Jordan has only scored four times, though significantly he has scored in each of the previous rounds of the League Cup. Hankin is one of the First Division's leading scorers with 11 goals.

Hankin was another of Mr. Armfield's signings, coming from Burnley for £180,000 last season.

The versatile Trevor Cherry, who has played in midfield and at left-back for England, is now playing at right-back for Leeds. Frankie Gray is well established on the opposite flank whilst Gordon McQueen and Paul Madeley operate at the heart of the defence.

Scottish international David Harvey has recently regained his place in goal from David Stewart.

The League Cup was the first of many trophies won by Leeds United during Don Revie's reign as manager. Leeds beat Arsenal 1-0 in the final just ten seasons ago and, after that, they won two League Championships, the European Fairs Cup twice and the F.A. Cup once. They were also runners-up on many occasions in almost everything they entered.

Mr. Armfield has already experienced the disappointment of being so near, and yet so far, with Leeds. There was defeat in the 1975 European Cup Final, after Leeds had looked so good in the first half, then last season his Wembley hopes were dashed when Manchester United beat Leeds 2-1 in the semi-final of the F.A. Cup.

In 1975 Leeds were beaten in the sixth round of the F.A. Cup.

They haven't enjoyed a really successful run in the League Cup, however, for some while. Last season they were beaten in the second round by Stoke City.

This season Leeds have faced clubs from the Third and Fourth Divisions in early rounds. They won 3-0 at Rochdale and this was followed by an easy home victory over Colchester United (4-0).

Leeds made a slow start to their First Division programme, winning only two of their first eight games. Another unsuccessful run was halted with their success at Manchester City.

Now, with Mr. Armfield's new signing's settled down, the prospects are that Leeds will quite soon be back among the honours.
